Are you aged 16-30? Not in education, employment, or training?

The Prince's Trust, in partnership with projects and employers in the East Midlands, are offering a FREE online employment training course, giving you a fantastic opportunity to start a career within Health & Social Care. You can expect:

- An introduction to life in health and social care, including possible roles and responsibilities
- Learning the values, skills, and attitudes required for a job in health and social care
- Online CV support and interview advice
- A speed interview for live vacancies
- Up to 6 months of mentoring support if wanted
- And it doesn't affect your benefits!

There are limited places available
so register your interest now by emailing:
