

Stand by Me

Bystander Intervention Training

Did you know that you are less likely to help someone in need when there are other people around you? This phenomenon is called the bystander effect. Hate often happens in public places, so there is a good chance you will witness it when you're out and about.

Everyone deserves to feel safe and our bystander intervention training will empower you to take action.

Contact us

admin@communitiesinc.org.uk

Communities
Inc